ROYAL COURT APPLICATION
QUALIFICATIONS

The Japanese Community Queen of 2010-2011 must be between the ages of 18-24; must not have reached her 24th birthday by July 31, 2010 and can be no younger than 18 on July 31, 2010.

- * Must not be nor ever been married or plan to be married during her reign.
- * Must be a high school graduate or equivalent.
- * Must live in the greater-Seattle area. Family must also reside in the greater-Seattle area.
- * Must not have, nor plan to have children during her reign.
- * Must have Permanent-Residence status defined as living in Washington State for 12 consecutive months prior to application due date.
- * Must be of one-half Japanese ancestry. Exceptions may be made on a case-by-case basis decided by the Board.

I am qualified, have read and fully understand all the responsibilities of becoming a member of the 2010-2011 Greater Seattle Japanese Community Royal Court, as written in the above statement. My parents or guardian(s) have read and fully understand all the responsibilities of me becoming a member, as written in the above statement.

The information I have provided on this application form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I authorize the Japanese Queen Committee to verify all the information I have provided.

I understand that I will provide the Japanese Queen Committee with necessary official educational transcripts to be used for judging purposes; and that any late transcripts will count as a penalty against me. I am fully aware that all judges' decisions are property of the Japanese Queen Committee and are confidential. I also understand that all results are final and will not be disclosed for any reason.

If you are a first-year freshman, you are required to submit high school transcripts as well as college transcripts.
